

TOP FACTS ABOUT DINING AT ATLANTIS, SANYA

1. Atlantis Sanya offers guests a total of 21 different restaurants, bars, café, and lounges.
2. The resort features two all-day dining restaurants, allowing guests to indulge in their culinary preference throughout the day.
3. The expansive Saffron offers 8 live cooking stations that serve different cuisines spanning from all corners of the world and are prepared by a chef specifically for guest desires. With an area of more than 2,000 square metres, the restaurant has 804 seats, one of the largest and most interactive buffet restaurants in Sanya.
4. Kaleidoscope is one of a few restaurants that solely offers a full range of authentic Chinese cuisine freshly prepared for guests at live cooking stations such as the Peking duck oven or steaming woks for the sizzling Szechuan street food.
5. Bread Street Kitchen & Bar is named after the street of its London counterpart which sits at number 10 Bread Street. The restaurant is located in the heart of The Avenues and offers British European dishes.
6. At the stylish and elegant Ossiano Underwater Restaurant & Bar, guests will be stunned by the floor-to-ceiling views of The Ambassador Lagoon. Guests can select from the wide array of fresh seafood at the display bar and one of the largest and diverse seafood platters in Hainan will be served on their table. This will be followed by sumptuous seafood main courses that can be paired with a fine selection of wines or tailor-made cocktails to bring out the best flavours.
7. The chilled ambient vibes of live DJ performances and graffiti-covered walls mean that Japanese Netsu is certainly one of the resort's trendiest hangouts, and one of the very few restaurants that offer a mix of teppenyaki, robatayaki, and sushi all under one roof, served alongside the bar's unique sake-based cocktails.
8. The cool, casual, and colonial-style Crab Kitchen is the only restaurant in Sanya that specialises in serving crabs of different sizes and varieties. With Atlantis' very own Singaporean chef, a variety of different Southeast Asian beers and live teh tarik performances, guests can definitely connect with the restaurant's Singaporean roots.
9. Poseidon Court is the resort's best spot to go to for a quick latte and a bite to eat. It offers guests a range of non-alcoholic beverages with an easy-going atmosphere to complement the amazing views of the marine life inside The Ambassador Lagoon.
10. One of the most luxurious restaurants to grace the resort is a Tang which makes guests feel like Chinese nobility as they tuck into the delectable dim sum prepared by a Michelin-starred Cantonese chef. Baijiu infused cocktails are carefully prepared to match the Chinese cuisine.
11. The lively environment of Nereus Brewery makes it an ideal setting for friends and family to share a pint of the only locally brewed beer in Haitang, offering different varieties of craft beer, an impressive selection of bottled beers from around the world and a great choice of Asian and Western food.
12. As the name suggests, Tikki Lounge is a Polynesian-inspired lounge and bar serving Asian tapas and Atlantis Sanya's acclaimed signature cocktails, and with each night featuring a live DJ, a Cuban band or a fire performance, guests can be sure the party atmosphere will create a night to remember.
13. Barazura offers a tranquil environment for guests to relax while sipping their favourite frozen drink or cocktail at the poolside.
14. The chilled atmosphere of Plato's Lounge & Bar caters for all occasions, guaranteeing spectacular views over the ocean and gardens below, premium tea, coffee and pastries in the afternoon and dazzling live music performances in the evening.
15. The Avenues Food Court presents 6 different food stations serving a variety of Asian and Western treats. Atlantis Sanya is the only resort in Hainan that features an onsite food court.