

Couples That Bowl Together, Stay Together!

Make the month of February a time to celebrate your shared love of life with a special 'Couples That Bowl' promotion at Dubai's leading entertainment destination

DUBAI, United Arab Emirates – From Saturday 1st to Friday 14th February, from 12pm to close, Wavehouse is offering couples an enticing bowl, drink and dine package for just AED300 for two, which guarantees to be right up everyone's alley in the run up to Valentine's Day.

Nothing spices up a date like laughter and a healthy dose of silliness, and chances are that unless someone is a professional bowler, there will be plenty of both at Wavehouse's new bowling nights. What's more, a leading sociologist recently found that participating in a fun activity together led people to have more positive feelings toward each other than just sitting together for a meal. At Wavehouse, couples get the chance to do both with a fantastic deal of just AED 300 for two, which includes two house beverages, two main courses from a specially curated Wavehouse menu, as well as a game of bowling. The menu on offer is as fun as the entertainment with plenty of comfort food options including smoky ribs, colourful sliders, vibrant salads, and pizzas.

With the cool vibe and casual dress code, Wavehouse makes for perfectly laidback date nights. There's also entertainment on offer with a DJ playing every day from 8:00pm, and live music on Tuesdays from 8:30pm onwards.

Fun-loving couples will also appreciate Wavehouse's fresh, funky design which recently won it the Best Interior Design Award at the 2019 Leaders in Food & Beverage Awards. Celebrating visionaries, leaders and pioneers while recognising the best venues in the region, Wavehouse was honoured for its cutting-edge design: a brilliant hybrid of industrial meets surf shack.

In the spirit of trying something surprising and new on a date, Wavehouse's limited time offer is set to be a gamechanger this February. Guests are encouraged to book their spots while there is still availability.
