

DUBAI'S AWARD-WINNING RESTAURANT, OSSIANO, REOPENS TEMPORARILY AS GRÉGOIRE'S KITCHEN BY OSSIANO

For this summer only, guests can come together in a relaxed atmosphere to feast on modern tapas, reimagined by the award-winning Chef Grégoire Berger

Dubai's world-renowned underwater restaurant Ossiano will take its first steps towards reopening on Thursday 16th July, but not quite as we know it. Temporarily renamed Grégoire's Kitchen by Ossiano, this special edition of Ossiano will run for this summer only, serving modern tapas dishes reconceptualised by Ossiano's renowned chef, Grégoire Berger.

Every evening from just AED 395, Grégoire's Kitchen by Ossiano will serve modern tapas-inspired menu featuring 18 individual dishes comprised of sweet and savoury flavours. The plates will be themed around exploring globally renowned foods that we all love to try when we travel, with dishes changing every week.

With accessible pricing and a more relaxed dining environment accompanied by a live DJ, Grégoire's Kitchen by Ossiano invites Dubai residents to reconnect and enjoy good times in a stunning dining destination. Chef Grégoire comments, "After this crazy and uncertain period, we want to focus on bringing people together, and nothing does this better than a great dining experience. Food nourishes the soul and we all need to heal together, so it's my pleasure to invite all of Dubai's residents to my restaurant, to enjoy our unique dining experience in an affordable way. We recognise that people can't travel right now, so we're modernising tapas dishes, and reinterpreting them with my own unique twist. I look forward to reopening the kitchen and to welcoming new guests to try our new food."

For AED 395, guests can enjoy 18 dishes divided into five appetisers, seven mains and six desserts, all themed around exploring food favourites from across the globe. Dishes will include sardine and confit lemon truffle, cancale oysters with seafoam, Spanish mussels with cider and chorizo, "bloody gazpacho" served on frozen salt, and churros with chocolate and coriander. While every dish will look and feel like tapas, each will be crafted using the world's finest ingredients and served in Chef Grégoire's unique way – with nothing quite as it seems...

Grégoire's Kitchen by Ossiano will launch on Thursday 16th July. Prices start at AED 395 for 15 dishes, or AED 595 with beverage pairing. Two seating's will be offered nightly at 6:00pm and 8:30pm. For ages 10 years and above. To find out more about Ossiano or to make a reservations log onto www.atlantis.com/dubai/restaurants/ossiano or call + 971 4 426 0800.
