BREAD STREET KITCHEN & BAR IS BATTERING UP FOR YORKSHIRE PUDDING DAY AND PANCAKE DAY!

Renowned for serving British comfort food at its best, Bread Street Kitchen is inviting diners to experience two age-old British traditions

DUBAI, United Arab Emirates (27th January 2021) – From the 7th to the 13th February Dubai's leading British restaurant will be paying homage to Yorkshire Puddings, while Pancake Day on the 16th February will appeal to anyone with a sweet tooth. Head Chef Cesar Bartolini, who has been working alongside Gordon Ramsay for 12 years, has crafted unique, distinctly British dishes for both of these themed dining experiences.

Yorkshire Pudding Day

For a whole week, Bread Street Kitchen is honouring the humble creation with savoury and mash-up creations based on the unsung hero of the Sunday roast – the perfect opportunity for guests to sample a variety of renditions of this doughy delight. For those new to the notion of the Yorkshire Pudding, this traditionally English food is made from batter consisting of eggs, flour, and milk or water. It is often served with beef and gravy and is part of the traditional British Sunday roast. The first Yorkshire Pudding recipe dates back to 1866 and was created by a woman called Mrs Beeton as a 'trick' to fill-up the family so less meat could be served.

Special dishes served during the week include Giant Yorkshire pudding with a choice of roast beef, lamb or chicken with all the trimmings, Toad in the hole ( a traditional English dish consisting of sausages in Yorkshire pudding batter), accompanied by mash, onion gravy and fresh horseradish, as well as a hearty steak and kidney stew in a giant Yorkshire pudding with sides of mash, kale and wild mushrooms.

A signature cocktail, In the limelight (AED 65), which is created with an aromatic blend of elderflower and marmalade, will provide the perfect accompaniment to these traditional dishes.

Pancake Day

On Tuesday 16th February, Bread Street Kitchen will mark Shrove Tuesday by serving three unique pancakes, with all dishes priced at just AED50.

Pancake day immediately precedes the first day of Lent i.e. Ash Wednesday, the beginning of 40 days of abstinence and fasting for Christians around the world. Traditionally this was also the last opportunity to use up eggs and fats before embarking on the Lenten fast – with pancake batter proving to be the perfect way of using up these ingredients.

Diners at Bread Street Kitchen can either opt for zesty lemon and sugar pancakes topped with lemon sorbet, decadent red velvet pancakes with seasonal berries and vanilla cream or triple chocolate 'pancakes with chocolate ice cream, chocolate brownies and chocolate ice cream. Guests are invited to pair their pancakes with a signature BSK espresso martini (AED 65) with a twist of caramel syrup.

- Date: 16th February
- Time: 6:00pm-10:00pm
- Children of all ages welcome

About Bread Street Kitchen Dubai

Mirroring the casual cool warehouse feel of the legendary London original, Bread Street Kitchen & Bar, Dubai is the fourth outpost of the restaurant across the world. With an indoor capacity of 279 and 152 on the outdoor terrace, the restaurant champions contemporary British dishes with influences from Europe and beyond. Following a successful launch in 2015, the restaurant has gone from success to success, taking the title of What's On Dubai's Best British Restaurant for Under 500 AED in 2016 and the Time Out Kids Dubai Award for Best Family Brunch in 2017. Heralded by celebrity chef Gordon Ramsay and helmed by Chef de Cuisine Cesar Bartolini, the menu consists of a selection of British classics and Gordon signatures including, the Beef Wellington, Lobster Tagliolini, and Gordon's favourite, the Tamarind Chicken Wings. The Bread Street Kitchen bar is a main focal point of the venue, with a team of experienced mixologists serving eight international beers and 29 different types of Gin. Almost as popular as the bar is the Bread Street Kitchen Ice Cream Counter, which serves homemade scoops including Bread and Butter Pudding softie.

About Atlantis, The Palm, Dubai

Atlantis, The Palm is the first entertainment resort destination in the region and located at the centre of the crescent of The Palm in Dubai. Opened in September 2008, the unique ocean-themed resort features a variety of marine and entertainment attractions, as well as 17 hectares of waterpark amusement at Atlantis Aquaventure, all within a 46-hectare site. It is home to one of the largest open-air marine habitats in the world, with over 65,000 marine animals in lagoons and displays including The Lost Chambers Aquarium, a maze of underwater corridors and passageways providing a journey through ancient Atlantis. Atlantis Aquaventure waterpark features 18 million litres of fresh water used to power thrilling waterslides, a 2.3-kilometre river ride with tidal waves and pools, water rapids and white-water chargers. Dolphin Bay, the unparalleled dolphin conservation and education habitat, and Sea Lion Point were created to provide guests a once in a lifetime opportunity to learn more about one of nature's most friendly mammals. The resort boasts an impressive collection of luxury boutiques and shops as well as extensive meeting and convention facilities. Atlantis, The Palm is also known as the culinary destination in the region where guests can take their pick from a collection of 29 world-renowned restaurants including Bread Street Kitchen & Bar, Hakkasan, Nobu, Ronda Locatelli, Seafire Steakhouse & Bar, and award-winning underwater restaurant, Ossiano. The nightlife scene at Atlantis is lively, too, with the fun-filled Wavehouse offering something for everyone, and WHITE Beach & Restaurant the perfect place to unwind with a drink as the sun slips into the Arabian Sea.
